ANSSACC DRUG POLICY

Version 2015

The Organising Committee condemns the use of classified substances for the purpose of performance enhancement. Not only these substances are dangerous to the well-being of the concerned person, the act of consuming such substances is unfair on other competitors and is contrary to the ethic of sport and incompatible with the Sikh philosophy. Any individual who is found/caught handling such substances risks ban for LIFE for participation in the Australian Sikh Games. Such individuals and any such events will be reported to the National Games Committee for further disciplinary action as well as to the relevant police and legal authorities. This ban is also for any officials and players who do not cooperate with the Drug policy, as it is against rules of the Australian Sikh Games and unsportsmanlike like. Participating clubs and players must be aware of the following protocols regarding the drug policy of ANSSACC.

1. Like any other sports organisation, Sikh Games are dealt as drug free games. Team members entered automatically are subject to drug test at any time during the tournament.
 - 1(a). Random tests can be done in Half-time break.
2. It is clubs responsibility to educate their players regarding zero drug policy. Any player /s do not cooperate with drug test team, is automatically suspended from playing and participating into the tournament.
3. Drug Policy Co-ordinators selected by Organizing Committee and ANNSACC can check any player for drug test on random basis.
4. Tests for certain drugs can be added to the list with 24 hour notice. The full list of prohibited drugs can be found on ANSSACC website or ASADA website. Possession of illicit drugs will be immediately reported to the police.

Drug Tests for 29th Annual Sikh Games:

1. Test for.. THC , Cocaine, Meth, Amphetamine, Opioids, Benzo (valium type of drugs). We will also test for K2 (synthetic cannabis). More drugs maybe added priors to the games with 24hour notice.
2. Urine, saliva or breath test. If need arises blood samples may be taken
3. Urine test takes about 3 mins (provided they can pee) Saliva around 10 minute mark. If they need to go to the lab they usually take 3 working days. Samples will not be sent off to the lab without prior approval.
4. Paper work is filled out as each person has their test, they receive a copy.
5. United front from management, this is really important. Putting a positive aspect and image on D&A screening is the key.

Procedure:

Choosing Player, Official or Team representative for Test:

- If player is randomly chosen by the local committee or ANSSACC, then cost of test will be paid by local committee however in test is positive, club(player's) will pay $200/test + $500 as fine. Player will be banned for 15 months(effective immediately) which means he/she will miss next games.
- Player or club cannot refuse test. Only five minutes will be given to make up mind. Then $500 as fine will apply. Player will be banned for 15 months(effective immediately) which means he/she will miss next games.
- If more than 3 players of same club are tested positive, then club will be put on notice and it will be compulsory to test all player participating and will pay test cost of all players.
- In case of serious dosage, blood samples will be taken and sent to the laboratory and club shall bear the cost.
- Names of players found positive may be disclosed to the public and media upon written request.
- Team officials, managers, referees, ANSSACC committee, Local committee, commentators and players are subject to the tests.
- 0.05 is the legal limit for alcohol. Persons found above limits will be immediately expelled and ejected from the venue.

Objectionary Tests:

- Test on player maybe initiated by other teams
- Objectors will deposit $200/test with objection form
- If player is found positive, $200 will be refunded to the objector and fines will apply to the player
- Objectors will bear the cost of test if found negative.
- Objections cannot be filed during the match.
- Objections can be filed at least 20mins prior or 5mins after the match or any other time when that team is not playing.
